Dear Colleague:

As a national "voice" for all Americans infected and affected with HIV disease, the National Association of People with AIDS (NAPWA) is dedicated to fostering a greater understanding of the realities of HIV disease and the need for prevention, care, and education programs. Further, as HIV moves into rural, correctional, and other communities with less accessibility to information, NAPWA reaches out to these areas and lessens the isolation of people living with HIV and their loved ones.

To this end, we would like you to introduce your constituency to NAPWA's Information and Referral Service by listing us in the resource directory of your newsletter. The listing, as space permits, should read:

The National Association of People with AIDS (NAPWA)-national AIDS organization dedicated to being the "voice" of people living with HIV/AIDS and their loved ones. Services include: National Information & Referral Service; free newsletters, Medical Alert and The Active Voice; NAPWA-Fax-on-demand; annual national conference; membership. 1413 K St., NW, 7th Fl., Washington, DC 20005. (202)898-0414, (202)898-0435/Fax, (202)789-2222/NAPWA-Fax.

If you have any questions about listing NAPWA and our services, please don't hesitate to contact me.

Thank you for your response to what is the health care crisis of our time. Working together we can make a difference!

Sincerely,

Yasmine A. Branden
Information & Referral Specialist
